To the Tax payers of Fryeburg:

We submit the report of the Municipal Officers of the Town for the year ending Feb. 19, 1908.

At the last annual Town Meeting it was voted to raise the sum of $1,500.00 to be paid on Town Notes. The last Note of $500.00 on account of money hired for the New School House at the Village was paid when due, then finding that we had sufficient money in the Treasury, we considered it for the best interests of the Town that the Note of $3,000.00 for money hired for Weston's Bridge be paid in full, and that has been paid, so that once again the balance shows in favor of the Town.

We consider it very necessary that quite extensive repairs should be made on Walker's Bridge, so called, near Geo. H. Walkers, the coming season, and have inserted an Article in the Warrant to that effect.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. BUZZELL,	} Selectmen and
W. M. HILL,

School Report.

February 21st will be the closing day of the year in most of the schools. The North Fryeburg school will close the 28th; the Harbor school must make up several weeks lost through the illness of the teacher there; and in the Haley school the two weeks due them from last year have been arranged for, from this years appropriation, so this school year will contain thirty-four weeks, ending March 13th.

We have been fortunate in having no serious epidemics or other interruptions to the year's work. The school year has been thirty-two weeks long, as was promised when the larger appropriation was made. We believe that the beneficial results of the longer year are evident in the quantity and quality of the work done.

The North Fryeburg school house was finished for the beginning of the fall term, and has proved admirably adapted for its purposes, Mr. Jones made especial effort to keep within the appropriation, and would have done so except for unexpected items of expense. More filling in and grading was found necessary than was planned for. Also new, larger windows for the old part matching those in the new, were essential for the appearance of the building, and for admitting proper light. Then, too, it seemed best to build a separate shed for the wood, instead of stowing it in the school building as was first intended. On account of these things, the account was overdrawn about forty-seven dollars. Moreover there was no appropriation made for seats. After consideration, it was decided to buy those new, as new seats seemed indispensable.

The building is now equipped with black boards, modern seats and teachers' desk. A new stove for one of the rooms and shades for all the windows also had to be purchased. These have been entered under the fund of Supplies and Incidentals.

The quality of the work done there has shown great improvement since the school was graded. We believe that the money expended in making these changes will be returned to the town in the greater efficiency of the school.

A hundred and fifty dollars was appropriated for repairs last year. From this fund the Haley, Harbor, West Fryeburg and Smarts' Hill school houses have been painted, a new out-house has been built at Toll Bridge and many small repairs have been made. The work at the Smarts' Hill school house was contracted for last year, but was not done then, so it had to be paid for from this year's appropriation.

The worn out school books were collected early in the season, and sent away for exchange. A new system has been adopted for numbering and keeping track of the lost books. We have changed the English books, and think the new ones find favor with teachers and pupils, as being simple and definite. Especial effort has been made this year to encourage improvement in Reading, and to have the pupils drilled in the fundamental principles of English. If the scholars, in leaving our schools, understand the parts of speech and the construction of a sentence, we feel that they have the basis of a good English education.

For next year, it is recommended that as many books of supplementary reading as possible, be added. When a child has finished and reviewed one Reader, he needs another book of equal difficulty before he goes on to the next Reader. There are many books of this kind to be purchased, containing easy histories, or standard stories, which would add much to the interest of Reading classes.

The transportation problem is as troublesome as ever. We have not solved it, but have done the best we could. In neighborhoods where there was some competition, we have been able to make reasonable arrangements. In others where there was no rivalry, we have had to pay more in proportion to the distance and the number of pupils conveyed. We have been obliged to establish a new route to convey the Kenerson children to the Center school from Page's Hill.

We hesitate to advocate other transportation routes, and yet the board feels that it must advise the combining of the Toll Bridge and Fryeburg Center schools. We believe it would be better for the children, and more inspiring for the teacher, if this were done. The Toll Bridge school has had but four, and the Centre school but six pupils, part of the year.

In the case of the Haley school too, we earnestly recommend that the pupils be transported to the Village school.

The School Committee and Superintendent wish to express gratitude to the teachers who have assisted, in a large measure, in making this school year a success.

Thanks are due also to the parents and friends who have shown an interest in the public schools. It is to be hoped that this interest will be increased, and manifested more fully in the coming years.

The financial statement for the year follows. When the bills for last year were all paid, the appropriation was overdrawn, so there was no unexpended balance to be added to this years resources.

Auditor's Report.

I have examined the accounts rendered by the officials of the town and will report them as being in very good shape indeed and apparently correct. It is very gratifying to know that our finances show a balance in favor of the town instead of against it. And you will see by the balance sheet of Resources and Liabilities that we can pay our total indebtedness and still have a balance in our treasury of $937.65.

C. W. PIKE,

Auditor.
